

Our Master: Thoughts for Salvationists about Their Lord by Bramwell Booth

Total running time: 04:42:07

Our Master: Thoughts for Salvationists about Their Lord was written by Bramwell Booth, the second person to hold the title of General of The Salvation Army. Although his autocratic leadership style caused great dissent within the ranks of the Army and ultimately lead to his removal, he left a legacy in this book of cherished insights into the life and character of Christ, the Lord of the universal army of all followers of the Master.
